BULLETINS OF THE BUREAU OF EDUCATION

The Bureau of Education is permitted by law to print only a limited edition of its bulletins for free distribution. The Superintendent of Documents, however, is authorized to sell any Government publication at cost, and he offers the documents in the following list for sale at the prices indicated. Those marked with an asterisk (*) may be had only by purchase from him. Those which are not marked with an asterisk are available for free distribution by the Bureau of Education as long as the supply lasts, but in general only one copy of any document will be sent to an applicant; larger numbers must be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents.

Address all purchase orders to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Remittance should be in coin, currency, or money order, payable to "Superintendent of Documents." Address requests for free copies to the Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C. Such requests should not in any case be included in the same letter with purchase orders. Do not send money to the Bureau of Education.

A complete list of available publications will be sent on application.
